

Main Question:

Sub Questions:

Why does this question matter to me?

Intermediate Deliverable:
iSearch Planning Tool

What do I already know about these questions?

Where might I find information on this topic and answers to these questions?

Who could I talk to who might have knowledge about this topic?

How will I document my search story, results and reflections?

What search terms might help me find answers?

What could I do or where could I go to learn more about this topic?

Intermediate Deliverable:
iSearch Writing Tool

The Search Story:

Engage Reader's attention and state your main question.
Explain why this topic was important for you
Explain what you already knew about the topic
Retrace your research steps and including your sources,
people and experiences.

Search Results:

Describe your results and give support.
Use findings statements to orient the reader and develop your ideas with direct quotations, paraphrases,
and summaries of information from your sources.
Cite all information from sources.

Search Reflections:

Discuss what you learned from your research experience. What questions and future experiences could you/will you pursue next?

Large empty rectangular box for writing the Search Story.

Large empty rectangular box for writing Search Results.

Large empty rectangular box for writing Search Reflections.